ANNOUNCEMENTS

Youth Sunday

We are pleased to have our Sr. RCYF young adults leading our service today. Thank you to our sponsors and youth for organizing our worship service.

Reminder to Organization Treasurers:

Please bring your 2025 bank statements, check registers and the January 2026 bank statement to the church office by February 1, 2026 so we can complete the financial reports for the church. Contact Carol Oolman if you have any questions.

Van Purchase

The deacons are excited to announce the recent purchase of a 15-passenger van! The van will be available for approved church functions. Drivers need to be approved and pass a screening process for insurance purposes. Please contact a deacon with any questions or to inquire about availability.

Reminder

Please check the MOVE table for lost and found items.

Baby Basket

Congratulations to Joe & Rachel Kooiker on the birth of their daughter, Arloa Mae. A basket is on the MOVE table for the next two weeks for anyone who would like to bless Joe & Rachel with a gift.

Sr. RCYF Silent Auction

The Sr. RCYF is having a silent auction this month to raise money for their Rocky Mountain High trip this summer. There is a table in the fellowship hall with all the items for the auction and which student is providing that item. Bidding is open until February 1 at 11:30am. Thank you for supporting our youth!

PRAYER FAMILY OF THE WEEK

Our prayer focus is Marv and Myrna Van't Hul. Marv and Myrna farmed for many years before retiring to Hull in 2002. Marv enjoys helping his son-in-law put in crops in the spring and harvesting in the fall. Marv is active in the Hull Historical Society and enjoys his toy truck collection. Myrna keeps busy with her collections. Their two daughters live nearby for which they are grateful. Marv and Myrna find joy in their grandchildren and now great-grandchildren and enjoy being part of their lives. Their grandson, Matthew, is on active duty in the military, stationed in Iraq. They ask for prayers for his safety and for our country. Marv and Myrna also ask us to join them in praying for the president and his cabinet to bring peace and security for our country. Uphold Marv and Myrna in your prayers this week.
